PROJECT DESCRIPTION	Community Enterprise Development as Pathway Out of Poverty or otherwise known as Japan Social Development Fund-Community Driven Enterprise Development Fund (JSDF-CDED) was a project that aimed to contribute to the overall objective of the Country Assistance Strategy (CAS) for the Philippines, which was to promote inclusive growth by improving access of poor/marginalized households to business and enterprise development opportunities. JSDF-CDED was a four (4) year project funded by the Japan Social Development Fund through The WorldBank Philippines. It was implemented by the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) through Sustainable Livelihood Program (SLP). Its primary Project Development Objective (PDO) is to improve the livelihood and quality of life of poor households in 6 municipalities through increased income and access to financial services, development of community driven enterprises linked to markets, and local economic development support.
